SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

John the Baptist was a man with a powerful message about repentance and the imminent coming of God's kingdom. But at the same time John's message was delicate and frustrating for him. This is because he did not live to see the final fulfillment of a promise he announced. The Church has a great deal in common with John; she does not point to herself but totally to Jesus Christ as the presence of God's kingdom and the fulfillment of our hope.

John's mission was "to prepare for the Lord of people fit for him" (cf. Mark 1.3). That mission continues today for we are always in need of conversion and purification in our faith, hope and love. Let's pray for each other at this Mass that we help each other to respond to the message of John the Baptist.

STS. PETER AND PAUL

On Saturday, June 29, the Catholic Church celebrates the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, apostles. Pope Paul VI described Peter and Paul as the first pillars of the universal church. He said that the supreme witness of their martyrdom suffered in Rome helped the Church to grow outward from Rome to all corners of the world: "Peter whom our Lord Jesus Christ chose as the foundation of His Church and the Bishop of Rome, and Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, teacher and friend of the church in Rome. " We are wise to ask the Blessed Virgin Mary to pray for our strength that we may hold fast to our faith like Peter at his crucifixion. May we have serene firmness of faith whatever the environment we are in. And may we receive the help from Mary, Queen of Apostles, to accept that sharing our faith requires sacrifice as Paul showed us.
