OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

On July 16th we commemorate the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. In the 12th century, some hermits in the Holy Land withdrew to Mount Carmel, with Saint Simon Stock.

In 1251, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Saint Simon Stock, Superior General of the Carmelites, with the scapular of the Order in her hands, and said to him: "Take this Scapular. Whosoever dies wearing it shall not suffer eternal fire. It shall be a sign of salvation, a protection in danger and pledge of peace" that is, whoever dies with it will be saved.

The Carmelite brown scapular is the external sign of Marian devotion, which consists in the consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary by inscription in the Carmelite Order, in the hope of her maternal protection. The scapular is not meant to be worn as a talisman or as some superstitious tool. In other words, the Scapular is not an amulet nor is it an automatic guarantee of salvation or a dispensation not to live the demands of Christian life.

The scapular is a sacramental which is 'a sacred sign after the model of the sacraments, by means of which are signified effects, especially spiritual, which are obtained through the intercession of the Church.' (S.C. N. 60).

The imposition of the scapular should preferably be done in a Church and following a brief rite. The first time it is imposed, it is given by a Catholic priest.

In addition to the promise of salvation for those who die with it, the Scapular of Carmel also carries with it the Sabbatine privilege.

The Sabbatine Privilege is the promise that those who wear the Brown Scapular will be released from purgatory on the first Saturday after their death, Saturday being the weekday dedicated to the Blessed Mother.

It is said that the future Pope John XXII had a vision of Our Lady who promised this on three conditions: Wear the Scapular; observe chastity according to one's state in life; and pray the Rosary.

This coming July 16 after the 6:30 PM Mass there will be imposition of the brown scapular to those who have not received it. If you have had the scapular imposed on you by a priest already we ask that you kindly do not come forward. Once is enough.

The Scapular can be of great help in our divine filiation and it can help with our spiritual life. In moments of temptation, we take the scapular in our hands and ask for the intercession of the Blessed Virgin asking her to help us to be faithful to her blessed Son.
