THE ASSUMPTION

On Tuesday, August 15 the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Since the fifth century the Church has held implicitly the belief in the Assumption of the Blessed Mother, body and soul, into heaven. It can be deduced from the liturgy, from devotional documents and the writings of the Church Fathers and Doctors of the Church. The dogma of the Assumption of Mary was explicitly proclaimed by Pope Pius XII on November 1, 1950.

Monsignor Ronald Knox, renowned English writer, wrote this very interesting analogy in his homily about the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary: "just as a traveler, gazing out to contemplate a vast panorama, seeks some human figure in his surroundings to bring the distant objects into perspective, so do we look towards God with amazement, but can identify and welcome a purely human figure at the side of God's throne. A ship has finished its passage, a destiny has been fulfilled, a human perfection has existed. Through Mary, His masterpiece, we see God's relations with humanity more clearly and with greater insight."

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, body and soul into heaven, teaches us about the dignity of the human body and God's plan for our destiny. The Blessed Virgin Mary is the beautiful prototype human that God shows to the angels and all of creation. He wishes all of us to imitate her response to Him with His help.

What a wonderful day to thank God for His goodness and to ask the Blessed Virgin Mary to pray with us and for us on our journey to eternal life.

BLESSED ARE YOU, O daughter, who bore for us the penalties of the commands that had been broken. When you had gained a mortal body from us, you gave birth to a covering of immortality for us. You repaid us so that it might be well with us, since you received birth from our loins. From beyond the grave you have called us back to our ancient seat: we closed paradise for ourselves, but you made open the way of the tree of life. Through our actions sadness came forth from happiness; through you even more joyful things have returned from sorrow. In what possible way could you be acceptable to death, O Immaculate one? You are the bridge of life and the ladder to heaven: you are a boat over the sea of death reaching to immortality.

From a Dormition homily by Saint John Damascene
