LABOUR DAY

Monday, September 2 is Labour Day across Canada. This holiday gives us an opportunity to think about the role of work in our lives and in the lives of others. The Vatican II document Gaudium et Spes (Church in the modern world) (GS) offers some wonderful insights about the nature of work in God's plan for human life. The document describes that through work people provide for themselves and their family, associate with others in respectful ways, and become a partner in the work of bringing "divine creation to perfection." (GS 67).

Our Christian faith tells us that through work offered to God, we associate ourselves with the redemptive work of Jesus Christ, whose labor with his hands at Nazareth greatly brought about the dignity of work. The document continues: "this is the source of every person's duty to work loyally as well as his or her right to work; moreover it is the duty of society to see to it that, according to the prevailing circumstances, all citizens have the opportunity of finding employment."

Finally, the document teaches about the factors that enter into determining the fair and just remuneration for work. Wages should provide a dignified livelihood for the person and his or her family on the material, social, cultural and spiritual level to correspond to the role and productivity of each, the relevant economic factors. . . and the common good." (GS 67). These are important matters for all to ponder when we talk about balanced minimum wage legislation.

Labour Day also gives us an opportunity to pray for our government and business leaders and ourselves to work together to make a healthy work environment in Canada. We should keep in mind those who have been injured or killed at work, and those who are unemployed and those who are underemployed. May God help us all to work for His glory and the good of all people.

The Birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary by Giotto, in the Scrovegni Chapel Padua, Italy (circa 1305)

THE BIRTH OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

September 8

Next Sunday, the Catholic Church celebrates the birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary on its traditional fixed date of September 8, nine months after the December 8 celebration of her Immaculate Conception as the child of Saints Joachim and Anne.

Saint Augustine described the birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary as an event of cosmic and historic significance, and an appropriate prelude to the birth of Jesus Christ. "She is the flower of the field from whom bloomed the precious lily of the valley," he said.

The fourth-century bishop, whose theology profoundly shaped the Western Church's understanding of sin and human nature, affirmed that "through her birth, the nature inherited from our first parents is changed." (Catholic News Agency)

Let's celebrate the birth of Mother Mary by offering her the gift of the rosary, which is a gift that always makes her smile.
