OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE STORY

One Saturday in early December 1531, Juan Diego was on his way to Mexico City to attend his catechism classes and to hear Holy Mass. When he reached the hill called Tepeyac, it was dawn and he heard a voice calling his name.

He climbed to the summit and saw a Lady of superhuman beauty, whose dress was as bright as the sun, who with very kind and attentive words said to him: "Juanito, the youngest of my children, I am the ever Virgin Mary, Mother of the true God, through whom one lives. I earnestly desire that a temple be built for me here, so that in it I may show and lavish all my love, compassion, help and defence on all the inhabitants of this land and on all those who call upon me and trust in me. Go to the Lord Bishop and tell him that I desire a temple in this plain. Go and put all your efforts into it".

On his return to his village Juan Diego met again with the Virgin Mary and explained to her what had happened. The Virgin asked him to go and speak to the bishop again the next day and repeat the message. This time the bishop, after hearing Juan Diego, told him that he should go and tell the Lady to give him some sign to prove that she was the Mother of God and that it was her will that a temple be built for her.

On his return, Juan Diego met Mary and told her the facts. The Virgin ordered him to return the next day to the same place, where she would give him the sign. The next day Juan Diego could not return to the hill because his uncle Juan Bernardino was very ill. In the early morning of the 12th of December Juan Diego left in a hurry to find a priest for his uncle, who was dying. When he reached the place where he was supposed to meet the Lady, he preferred to take another road to avoid her. Suddenly Mary came out to meet him and asked him where he was going.

Juan Diego was ashamed and explained to her what was happening. The Virgin told Juan Diego not to worry, that his uncle would not die and that he was already healthy. Then the Indian asked her for the sign to take to the bishop. Mary told him to go up to the top of the hill where he found fresh Castilian roses and putting on his tilma, he cut as many as he could and took them to the bishop.

Once before Monsignor Zumarraga Juan Diego unfolded his cloak, the roses fell to the ground and the tilma was painted with what is known today as the image of the Virgin of Guadalupe. Seeing this, the bishop took the holy image to the main church and built a hermitage in the place the Indian had pointed out.

Pius X proclaimed her "Patroness of all Latin America", Pius XI of all the "Americas", Pius XII called her "Empress of the Americas" and John XXIII "The Celestial Missionary of the New World" and "the Mother of the Americas".
